Happy 24th Anniversary

Announcements:

The Purple Mainstream Class of 2006 will celebrate their Class Completion on May 15. Please come and welcome our new dancers into the fold. The celebration will be at EVRC from 7:30-9:30 pm. Members are encouraged to bring food to share.

The Purple Plus Class will begin on May 22 with a free introductory night, with the first official class night on June 5.

Enclosed in this issue is an order form for obtaining club attire. The club makes a mass purchase once a year to save on shipping & handling. You can order directly from our vendor (www.embroideryjustforyou.com) through our website at any time. The white shirt with logo on the left breast is the official uniform (with black pants). Unofficially, anything with our club logo is great!

Please return the form as soon as possible.

Leaving Edith Headless

HOLLYWOOD—As Women's Wear Daily had predicted, couture from The House of Joe & Todd dominated the red carpet promenade throughout the recent awards season. Faux fur shoulders, African print Western wear, sheer glitter fabrics, and electric pinwheel pendants were all very popular among most of the award nominees and presenters. Starlets arrived in matching frocks; and rumor has it that Tom Cruise appeared in tablecloth chaps.

Although jewelry from the Merle Adams Collection or from Paul Gonyea Designs continued to adorn the throats of the film industry elite, hypnotic, illuminated pinwheels are now the choice of Hollywood's new edgy generation. But older Hollywood was also represented with Ed Mah in jewelry inspired by Freeman Stamper, and Joan Rivers mistook David for Virginia Graham.

MORE GLAMOR SIGHTINGS!

Matt and Steve attended the Peter Berlin Look-Alike Contest. Their baskets were unappreciated; however, congratulations must be extended to WSD Purple Class "Herselvis" Leigh Crow's Whoa Nellies partner Peter Fogel, who actually won the coveted title.

Matt— Should have worn Chanel

Steve— Should have entered the Carol Channing Contest

Tablecloth Tom— Oilcloth chaps and fleshview shirt

Happy Anniversary, April Fool and Ta-Ta from Tinsel Town!
